

Alcohol Consumption on Library Property Policy

The Western Allegheny Community Library may host social events where attendees bring their own alcohol to consume.

Upon entering the library, all patrons will be asked for a current identification with their picture and birthdate clearly printed to show proof of legal drinking age. The Library will not allow patrons to attend the event if the patron refuses or does not have proper identification. Staff members have the right to deny access to the event to anyone they think is already impaired by alcohol or other drugs. In addition, participants will be required to sign the attached agreement: Agreement for Use of Alcohol at Western Allegheny Community Library.

The Western Allegheny Community Library reserves the right to stop consumption of alcohol to any patrons who seem excessively intoxicated and could harm themselves or others. The Library also reserves the right to call the North Fayette Township Police if any patron become belligerent.
